

Who We Are

The B.C. Confederation of Parent Advisory Councils (BCCPAC) is recognized as the collective voice of parents regarding public school education in BC. Every public school Parent Advisory Council and District Parent Advisory Council in the province is eligible for membership.

BCCPAC is a charitable non-profit organization registered under the BC Society Act.

BCCPAC purposes are:

To advance the public school education and well-being of children of the province of BC.

To carry on activities to promote and enhance meaningful parent participation in an advisory role at the school, school district and provincial level.
